county clerk and the clerk shall file certified copies thereof with the State Department of Mental Hygiene and also with the superintendent of the hospital from which the insane or mentally ill person was paroled, granted leave of absence, or discharged. If the matter is tried by a jury the cause against the insane or mentally ill person shall be represented by the district attorney of the county. From a decision of the court or verdict of the jury finding the person not sane, an appeal may be taken as in civil cases. If three-fourths of the jury fail to declare the person sane, or the court or the jury finds the person to be not sane, the proceeding shall be dismissed and no new application to declare the person sane shall be made for six months thereafter.

CHAPTER 694

An act to add Section 7058.01 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to commitment of defective or psychopathic juvenile delinquents.

[Approved by Governor June 13, 1947. Filed with Secretary of State June 13, 1947.]

In effect
September
19, 1947

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7058.01 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

7058.01. When a minor has been committed by the juvenile court to the Department of Mental Hygiene for observation, diagnosis, and recommendations pursuant to Section 740.5, or has been placed by the Youth Authority pursuant to Section 1756 in a state institution under the jurisdiction of the Department of Mental Hygiene for observation and diagnosis, and the medical superintendent or other person in charge of the state institution in which the minor has been placed for observation has reported to the court or to the Youth Authority that the minor is a defective or psychopathic delinquent, and recommended that the minor be committed as a defective or psychopathic delinquent pursuant to this chapter, the commitment for observation pursuant to Section 740.5 or the placement by the Youth Authority pursuant to Section 1756 shall be deemed to be an observation commitment pursuant to Section 7058, and no further observation commitment under that section is required. The court may accept the report and recommendation of the medical superintendent or other person in charge of the state institution, if verified, in lieu of the examination by and testimony of court appointed psychologists or psychiatrists or may consider the report and recommendation as additional evidence.
